EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows: Please cancel claims 1-11 and 19-29.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 12-18, 30, and 31-40 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

Uchida et al. clearly teaches the construction of a rotor for a synchronous rotary machine comprising:

a rotor; and a plurality of axial rotor sections defined on a radially outer surface of said rotor, wherein each of said axial rotor sections include a set of permanent magnets including m magnet poles, wherein axial rotor sections are rotationally offset and said edges of said permanent magnets define stair step interfaces.

Carpenter et al. teach the construction of a dynamoelectric machine with permanent magnet and magnet mounting surface arrangement wherein said permanent magnets are one of arc magnets and breadloaf magnets for the purpose of forming a cylindrical surface and a skew angle with the axis corresponding with the rotational offset of the magnet mounting surfaces to define skewed slots between skewed magnetic poles extending the substantial axial length of the core.

The prior art of record, taken alone or in combination, fails to teach the construction of a permanent magnet electric machine with reduced cogging torque as described on independent claims 12 and 30, wherein said permanent magnets of said rotor include substantially unmagnetized straight skewed areas.

Dependent claims 13-18 and 31 are considered allowable by their respective dependence on allowed independent claims 12 and 30.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See PTO-892.
